SolarWise for Schools is the easy way to support solar energy and education with no out-of-pocket cost to you. Plus, if you sign up during October, Energy Awareness Month, you'll receive a free, eco-friendly tote bag.

How can I participate in SolarWise for Schools?

As an EnergyWiseSM participant, you're already making a smart energy decision. Now you can go the extra step of joining SolarWise for Schools and receive a free tote.

- Requires no out-of-pocket expense from you – simply contribute your EnergyWise¹ credits to SolarWise for Schools²
- Those credits are put in a special fund that purchases solar energy systems for schools and provides energy curriculum materials
- Great way to support solar energy during October, Energy Awareness Month

Be a part of advancing young minds and the energy solutions of the future. Join SolarWise for Schools today.

How to get your free tote

It's easy. Just return the attached card or sign up at savethewatts.com. But remember, this free offer is only available if you sign up during October.
