

Home Advantage Residential New Construction Program
Builder Agreement
Single Family / Multi-Family / Manufactured / Owner

I / My Company, wish to participate in Duke Energy's Home Advantage builder program. I / We agree to construct all of the duct systems according to Duke Energy standards using fabglass/mastic to seal all joints and connections in the duct system. In return, Duke Energy will certify all of my new homes built to its standards in meeting their energy efficiency criteria as it pertains to the duct system.

Duke Energy accepts no responsibility for the workmanship of any conservation measures it recommends nor for any consequential or incidental damages resulting from defects therein, and does not guarantee such measures, even if free from defects and properly installed.
